Reporting Line:

The intern reports to one of the Programme Managers who is assigned by the Head of Planning Office as internship supervisor. A Programme Manager has at least six years of working experience and manages his or her portfolio related to EULEX' activities independently.

Main Tasks and Responsibilities:

The Planning Office, as part of the Office of the Chief of Staff (OCoS), is the responsible unit to translate – jointly with the subject matter experts – the Operational Plan (OPLAN), approved by the Member States, into the Mission Implementation Plan (MIP) and the derived “MIP Actions”, which form the target agreement of the Mission’s concrete field activities. Each MIP Action entails specific expected results, objectively verifiable indicators (OVIs), activities and timelines, which further help to structure EULEX’ feedback to Brussels on the pace of the Mission’s activities, and to provide the senior management team with relevant information to steer the Mission’s activities. Planning Office therefore focuses on making sure that EULEX activities are in line with originally established goals and follows up on progress against previously established benchmarks. The main tool through which the Planning Office conducts the gathering of reports from the implementing units for progress updates is the EULEX online information system.

- Assisting Programme Managers in working with implementing units delivering on the mandate to ensure that their work is focused on achieving output;
- Supporting the Programme Managers in uploading information and filing reports on the EULEX online info system related to their area of work;
- Supporting the responsible Programme Manager in designing and organizing tailor-made approaches for implementing units (“MIP Owners”), related to the evaluation and assessment of Mission activities;
- Contributing to the further development of evaluation methodologies;
- Contributing to and proofreading documents related to the work of the Programme Managers, especially evaluation reports and presentations for external audiences;
- Undertaking any other task as requested by the Head of Planning Office or the Programme Manager supervising the intern.

Education and Experience:

Essential

- Completion of minimum three years of studies corresponding to a Bachelor’s degree in Law, Public Administration, Social Sciences, Political Affairs, Media Studies or other relevant degree;
- Excellent communication skills coupled with proficiency in spoken and written English;
- Excellent drafting skills and ability to structure written material effectively;
- Well organised and able to multi-task;
- Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships within a team and multi-cultural environment.

Desirable

- Enrolment in further studies in the above, leading towards a Master's or Doctorate, or the equivalent;
- Experience in data collection and data analysis, as well as in the use of quantitative and qualitative research methodologies;
- Experience in monitoring and evaluation;
- Experience and/or interest in database management, feeling comfortable with IT data collection tools;
- Knowledge of the functioning of the EU and in particular CSDP Missions;
- Understanding of the political, cultural and security situation of the Balkans, in particular Kosovo;
- International experience, particularly with international organisations.
